

Phillip DeCaro

Research Assistant

303.295.8139

pdecaro@persuasionstrategies.com

Between discovery and closing argument, litigators and their clients rely on Phil for insightful strategic guidance informed by real jurors across the country.

EDUCATION

- Sturm College of Law -
University of Denver, J.D., 2006
- University of Colorado at
Colorado Springs, B.A.,
Political Science, 2002

Phil has experience researching jury-eligible individuals before and after trial. He has supported attorneys in various roles, including working as a paralegal, data clerk, executive assistant, and records manager. Litigators appreciate his perspective and insights as they prepare for all phases of arbitration, mediation, or trial.

He works closely with litigation consultants, attorneys, and data analysts to support research efforts of all types. Drawing on his legal background and education, Phil provides proactive solutions to data researchers and litigation consultants. He brings a passion for details and ensures the client perspective stays at the forefront, from initial contact through preparing insightful reports.

Phil is a resourceful and integral member of the Persuasion Strategies team. Clients, litigation consultants, data researchers, and graphics professionals rely on Phil for assistance during all phases of preparation for jury or community research projects.

REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Exceptional Advice During

- Mock Trials
- Case Strategy
- Community Attitude Surveys
- Juror Interviews

Informed Support Regarding

- Medical Negligence/Malpractice
- Energy and Environmental
- Commercial Litigation
- Product Liability

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

- Certified Notary, Colorado